

A Feynman diagram equation. On the left, a double wavy line connects two black dots, with the label W above it. This is followed by an equals sign. On the right, a shaded gray circle with a thick black border contains the label ϵ^{-1} . Two black dots are attached to the left and right sides of the circle. A single wavy line extends from the right dot to another black dot.